vaccination with transports is proposed to go from $28 to $30. Outside fees for cats will go from $6 to $10 and for dogs from $10 to $12. Outside fees for microchip going from $20 to $30. 4DX tests from $40 to $45. Flea control from $10 to $12. FELVIV tests from $30 to $35 and the warming from $6 to $10.

Ms. Hines asked why Animal Control does not go out to bid for veterinarian services.

Mr. Cadime said he would find out. He said these fees will be implemented on July 1, 2019.

The Board of Selectmen fee for transfers and change of manager will be $100.

Mr. Almeida supported the fee.

Mr. James Aguiar, Building Commissioner in Seekonk and Dighton, explained they needed to streamline fees. The intent is to try to reduce the number of line items and to consolidate the permits most sort after. The fee for finished basements was reduced to $500. The fee schedule should increase the revenue and could offset some of the costs.

Mr. Aguiar explained it is more reasonable and accurate to use the actual square footage of the house rather than the fit and finish.

Mr. Cadime said the trash fee will be $211.27. Large trash bags going from $1.02 to $1.05 and small bags from 63 cents to 65 cents. These were not increased last year.

Chairman Andrade said there have been many complaints about the quality and size of the bags.

DPW Supt. David Cabral said there have been a few issues with the quality. He urged residents to bring the bags to DPW to get replacements. DPW will get reimbursed. He said the strength of the bags is still the same. It happened when DPW placed a large order for bags. It seemed to be at the Stop & Shop on Newman Avenue. He noted the Recycling Coordinator has been handling that. He will get more information.

In response to Ms. Hines' question, Mr. Cabral said the trash fees are covering the disposal fees. The contract costs went up.

Chairman Andrade suggesting a place holder for marijuana fees. He thought there was a consensus at the last meeting.

Mr. Almeida asked about perpetual care fees at both cemeteries.
